LETTER WRITING

Is what you make it—for better or worse! If you write on cheap flimsy paper you are no welcome correspondent. If you use a substantial and stylish writing paper—one that is easy to write upon and always correct, you create a good impression and please your correspondent. Letters written on bad paper are seldom saved—they convey none of your personality. A good up-to-date paper is just as essential as the composition of a letter. All

Eaton's Fine Papers

Can be entirely depended upon—the sizes, the styles, the prices and the manufacture are strictly correct. Come in and see them. If not satisfied—your money back.

1845--SAMUEL SHELTON CANFIELD--1909

Funeral services in memory of the late Mr. Canfield were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. T. Anderson, at 10:30 o'clock, Wednesday morning, July 28, 1909. Rev. W. O. Calhoun officiated and spoke feelingly of the kindhearted and generous impulses of the deceased, extolling his character as a husband, father, and citizen. He was assisted by Revs. H. A. Bail-y, B. F. Felt and E. L. Moore, and a choir composed of Mrs. Sue M. Sharpe, Mrs. Z. T. Shriver, Dr. F. J. Bovard and Mr. Silas Shriver rendered several favorite hymns of the deceased. The pall-bearers were six comrades, as follows: G. W. Robinson, J. A. Snull, Wm. Lawrence, P. S. Luedi, F. X. Kreidler and D. W. Clark. Stow Post, of which the deceased was an honored member, attended in a body as an escort. Tokens of esteem in the form of beautiful wreaths of flowers from the Post and Relief Corps adorned the casket.

Our Twice a Year Clearance Sale

Opened Saturday Morning, July 31.
Closes Saturday Night, August 7th.

Particulars as to prices in our circulars. Every article in the store at sharply reduced prices except a few contract goods, such as E. & W. and Arrow Brand Collars and a few similar articles. Our is a Sale it pays to attend, as the goods we offer are from

Our Regular Stock,

Which is the best at the prices that money can buy; every garment and article on sale bears the original price ticket marked in plain figures that any school boy can read and judge the savings we offer; and this in the face of tariff legislation that without doubt will advance the prices of Men's wearing apparel.

Don't you think it will pay you to come in and look around at least?
